INTEGRITY - Exhibits behaviors showing a strong internal personal commitment to fundamental principles of honesty and fairness dealing in all activities related to job performance.

- Imagine yourself in a situation where you learned about an upcoming organizational change before others in your workgroup. The information is going to have a major impact on others in the workgroup. How would you handle the situation? Would you tell others? Why or why not?

- Has your manager/supervisor/team leader ever asked you to do something that you didn't think was appropriate? How did you respond?

- If you found yourself in a situation where your manager/supervisor/team leader asked you to do something that you felt was very close to the line but not quite unethical, what would you do?

- Tell us about a time you saw a fellow employee do something that you didn't think was appropriate. What did you do?

- How would you handle a customer question about something that you knew was a weakness in your product/service? Would you share your knowledge with the customer?