SERVICES FUNDED IN TOTAL OR IN PART BY SSBG

Adoption Preservation Services are provided to maintain, support and strengthen a family created through adoption. (Listed in the SSBG Plan under federal definition Adoption Services)

Adult Protective Services are available to protect incapacitated adults from abuse, neglect and exploitation, and if possible, to help them resume their role as primary protector of themselves. (Listed in the SSBG Plan under federal definition Protective Services Adults)

Child Care and Development provides supervised, planned developmental activities and nutritious meals and snacks to children through 12 years of age or through 18 years of age if the child has special needs. The service is available to parents or caretakers who are working, in school or in training; to children in need of protection; and to children who are handicapped. (Listed in the SSBG Plan under federal service definition Day Care Children)

Child Protective Services are provided to families whose children have been abused or neglected and also includes temporary emergency placement of children as a service component. (Listed in the SSBG Plan under federal service definition Protective Services Children)

Day Care for Adults is offered to individuals who require hands-on assistance with any two activities of daily living or who may require supervision in a structured environment due to moderate memory or cognitive impairment and who lack other formal or informal resources.

Family Management Counseling includes an array of services to enhance self-sufficiency, knowledge, skills and coping mechanisms provided to individuals or families at risk of entry into a more restrictive living environment or service system. (Listed in the SSBG Plan under federal service definition Counseling Services)

Foster Care Services include assessment of abused, neglected or abandoned children's needs; case planning and management to assure that children receive proper care in a licensed or approved environment; room and board or medical care; counseling of the child, the child's parents and foster parents; and referral and assistance in obtaining other necessary supportive services. (Listed in the SSBG Plan under federal service definition Foster Care Services -Children)

Home Delivered Meals are provided to individuals of any age who are homebound because of a physical or mental disability.

Homemaker Services are offered to adults and children receiving protective services and to individuals who are frail, chronically ill or disabled, and who do not qualify for Medicaid-sponsored skilled or intermediate nursing care. (Listed in the SSBG Plan under the federal service definition Home Based Services)

Prevention/Intervention Services are those services or activities designed to provide early identification and/or timely intervention to support families and prevent or ameliorate the consequences of, abuse, neglect, or family violence. Component services and activities include time-limited clinical interventions designed to defuse crises that threaten a child's stability within the home environment, case management, and developmental and parenting skills training.

Socialization and Developmental Services are provided to children 17 years of age and under and are designed to enable the child to develop socially, physically and emotionally. (Listed in the SSBG Plan under federal service definition for Other Services)

Special Services for the Pregnant Woman are available to expectant mothers who are in need of out-of-home placement to ensure the health and safety of the mother and unborn child, and to help with concerns related to pregnancy. It also includes services to parents of young children to assist them in achieving independence and providing nurturing care for their children. (Listed in the SSBG Plan under federal service definition for Other Services)

Training includes the DSS Training Fund and supports training of SCDSS caseworkers. The DSS Training Fund is designed to promote quality service provision to individuals and families by making funds for training and conferences available to all SSBG providers. (Listed in the SSBG Plan under federal service definition Education/Training Services)
